Dear Family,

As the body of Christ we've weathered through some ups and downs, triumphs and trials and we've done this together. I believe through it all we've all grown stronger. It's hard to place words on how fortunate we feel being a part of this family. Due to the recent season of "Pastor's Appreciation" Sherrie and I were showered with cards expressing your gracious appreciation. As the number of cards increased so did our humility. The notes on the cards were extremely humbling. The dinner was simply overwhelming and a complete surprise. The love we experienced was breathtaking. We feel extremely fortunate for you to allow us to be part of your family in this Valley. Words simply escape us when we consider your generosity as you saw to it that Sherrie and I could extend our SBC convention meeting into a very special vacation. Let us explain. My sister (Clayton's) moved to California in 1980 and we've never had the opportunity to visit her. You made that possible-thank you. I pray God will keep us as His servants in this Valley as we aim to fulfill His calling on us as individuals and together as a body.

With ceaseless love and extreme gratitude,
Bro Clayton and Sis Sherrie
